Billy Williamson of the Balmy Beach Canoe Club, 1936 Canadian Olympic representative in double blade paddling events, is congratulated by his wife Gladys after winning the double blade single and tandem events at the Beach regatta Saturday afternoon.

Island Paddlers Score Fourth Straight Victory

Island Canoe Club won its fourth straight regatta Saturday afternoon at the Balmy Beach Canoe Club despite the fact that Balmy Beach won six races to five Island wins. The Islanders built up their victory total of 47 points by taking second place nine times, while Beach crews, who had 41 points, finished second only three times. Toronto Sailing and Canoe Club salvaged eight points.

Beach paddlers, at home on the choppy, open water course, won all the single events.

Billy Williamson of Balmy Beach, double blade expert and Canadian representative in the 1936 Olympics, was the top performer of the regatta. Williamson won the double blade singles by 10 lengths, and teamed with Toutloff to win the tandem by a greater margin. He was the only two-event winner of the regatta.

In the war canoe races J. Hodgson's Islanders won their fourth straight junior event, while Jim Mossman's seniors captured their third victory in four starts. Paul Porter's Old Timers' crew in the senior war canoe race was swamped before reaching the finish line.
