Canoë Club swept to its third points.

regatta burgee Saturday, scoring in triple figures for the third time as the Blue and Gold paddlers won nine of 18 events and compiled 124 points.

Nearest to Beach was Toronto Sailing and Canoë Club, with 66 points and three wins. West Rouge CC made the best showing of its three-year career, earning 60 points and winning two events. Port Credit's Mississauga CC was badly off form, managing only two victories and 44 points. The host Mohawk CC was held winless, but compiled 23 points for fifth place. Sudbury CC won one

With TS&CC's perennial winner in the kayak boats, Gabor Joo, absent and saving himself for yesterday's Canadian team championships at Long Pond on Toronto Centre Island, Beach paddlers moved into that division and picked up three wins. Joe Green won the senior kayak singles; John Ball and Jon Morgan took the tandems and the fours went to Green, Morgan and Ball, with Ron Adams added.

The Dominion Day annual meet at Long Pond will see 19 canoe events interspersed with 20 rowing races.
